Pastor Installed.

The services in connection with the Installation of Rev. Joseph R. Sevier as pastor of the Second Presbyt-rian Church of this city last night were interested. of this city last night were interesting and impressive, and were witnessed by a and impressive, and were witnessed by a large concourse of people. Nearly every sest in the auditorium was occupied, as were also those in the gallery. The services began at 7:30 o'clock. The following was the order of exercises:

Anthem; Hymn, No. 581, congrega-tion (standing); Scripture Lesson, Rev. James I. Vance; prayer, Rev. D. W. Wills, D. D.; authem; sernios, Rev. James I. Vance, D. D.; hymn, No. 325, congregation, (standing); constitutional question and installation, Rev. H. W. Pratt; charge to pastor, Rev. Wm. Chinn: anthem charge to congregation, Rev. James Taylor; hymn, No 566, congregation (standing); prayer, Rev. James I.

The sermon of Rev. Mr. Vance had been well-conceived and it abounded in many forcible illustrations. His text was from the Epistle to the Philippians (iii., 14). Among other things, he called attention to the fact that men and women get out of their religion what they put in it. Generally a man who devotes his industry and talents to his business reaps the fruit of his labors. The same rule applies to the spiritual life. These who invest little and make but feeble effects to grow in the faith, could expect no barvest; while those who could expect no harvest; while those who patiently continue in well-doing are assured of their reward. The reverend gentleman likened the Christian's road to the other world to a trunk line railway with its many side tracks, branches and spurs Numbers, unforunately, leave the main stem and become side-iracked, while others press on toward the mark of their high calling.

A the close of Mr. Vance's sermon

Rev N. W. Pratt, of Washington, propounded the usual constitutional quesas to Rev. Mr. Sevier, after which R v. Wn. Chinn, of Warren'on delivered the charge to the newly-selected pastor. This was done in a succinct and impressive

R v. James Taylor's charge to the coogregation, which followed, was very intersong. There was at times a suspicton of humor in the reverend gentleman's remarks, coupl d with practic l, serious and important thoughts. His magner was pleasing throughout and his pression open all his hearers

Bear in Fairfax.

People from Fairfax county say that a bear is prowling around in the neighbor-hood of Springfield. The brute last night invaded the yard of a resident of that vicinity and appropriated the contents of a slop barrel. Bruin's tracks have been traced, and there is some auxiety among persons compelled to be out at night. Epringfield is but nine miles from Alexandria, and the bear may stray to the confines of this city

It seems that Schools married a woman in Baltimore about twa years ago. He afterwards deserted that wife, and married a woman in Washington. He took his last wife to Tappahannock to live and the Baltimore wife heard of his whereabouts and notified the Washington police. An officer was sent to Tappahan-nock and returned last night with his man. Schools is about thirty-five years

Opera House.

Opera House.

"The Little Duchess," a comedy "rama in five acts, was excel cuttly presented at the Opera House last night by the May Hillman Stock Comp ny before a large audience. The drama is a well-written one and every memb r of the company gave a careful interpret-tion of their parts. Miss Hillman, Mr. Powner and Mr. Herring were exceptionally good. The specialties were very entertaining. Tonight the company will produce "A Wife's Sacrifice," one of the b st pie ea in their repertoire. New specialties will be introduced. Tomorrow night the company will present (by request) their last season's success—the four act melodrama entitled "Flood Tide." This dr vm is intensely interesting and contains many thrilling interesting and contains many thrilling climaxes, notably the lighthouse scene. This will be an excellent opportunity to witness a good play.
